

Fitch Upgrades 9 Tranches of Hipoccat RMBS Series; Affirms 11

Fitch Ratings-London-20 April 2018: Fitch Ratings has upgraded nine tranches of the Hipoccat RMBS series and affirmed 11 tranches. All ratings have been removed from Rating Watch Evolving (RWE) where they were placed on 5 October 2017 following the publication of Fitch's new European RMBS Rating Criteria.

The transactions consist of mortgages originated in Spain by Catalunya Banc S.A. (now part of BBVA Group; A-/Stable/F2), which previously traded as Caixa Catalunya. The loans are serviced by BBVA Group.

KEY RATING DRIVERS

European RMBS Rating Criteria

The rating actions reflect the application of Fitch's new European RMBS Rating Criteria. They also reflect the levels of credit enhancement (CE) relative to Fitch's asset performance expectations as per the agency's rating criteria.

Payment Interruption Risk

For Hipoccat 7, the cash reserve fund has a balance of EUR 12.8 million, which is approximately 50% of the target balance. Although the cash reserve fund may be drawn in the future to cover for defaults, Fitch has not applied a rating cap to the class A2 and B notes based on the expectation that funds will remain sufficient to cover payment interruption risk. However, the lack of dedicated liquidity has precluded upgrades above 'A+sf'.

For Hipoccat 9, Hipoccat 10, and Hipoccat 11, the cash reserve funds are currently fully depleted. Therefore, the note ratings remain capped at 'A+sf' due to insufficient structural mitigation to payment interruption risk.

Asset Performance

Based upon supplementary loan-level data, Fitch estimated total delinquent loan balances (in excess of x0.1 payments) of 15.7%, 14.4%, 16.2% and 18.3% for Hipoccat 7, Hipoccat 9, Hipoccat 10 and Hipoccat 11, respectively, as a percentage of the total loan balance of performing and delinquent loans. The balances of loans with more than three payments in arrears were estimated at 0.8%, 1.2%, 1.1% and 1.3% for Hipoccat 7, Hipoccat 9, Hipoccat 10 and Hipoccat 11, respectively.

CE

Currently all four transactions are amortising on a sequential basis between each class of notes as a result of the reserve funds being under funded.

For Hipocat 7, Fitch has calculated CE of 33.4%, 26.9% 14.4% and 6.0% for the class A, B, C and D notes, respectively.

For Hipocat 9, Fitch has treated the class A2a and A2b notes as pari-passu. Fitch has calculated CE of 25.2%, 15.4%, 7.2%, negative 3.3% and negative 10.5% for the class A, B, C, D and E notes, respectively.

For Hipocat 10, Fitch has treated the class A2 and A3 notes as pari-passu. Fitch has calculated CE of 15.8%, negative 1.4%, negative 17.6% and negative 25.5% for the class A, B, C and D notes, respectively.

For Hipocat 11, Fitch has treated the class A2 and A3 notes as pari-passu. Fitch has calculated CE of negative 0.9%, negative 17.2%, negative 36.9% and negative 45.6% for the class A, B, C and D notes, respectively.

Recoveries on Defaulted Receivables

Fitch was provided with supplementary loan-level information on defaulted accounts to enable the calculation of recoveries on defaulted receivables as described in its European RMBS Rating Criteria.

For Hipocat 7 the balance of defaulted receivables totalled EUR 24.4 million and Fitch calculated a 'Bsf' a recovery rate of 40.1%. For Hipocat 9 the balance of defaulted receivables totalled EUR 36.7 million and Fitch calculated a 'Bsf' recovery rate of 29.2%. For Hipocat 10 the balance of defaulted receivables totalled EUR 83.4 million and Fitch calculated a 'Bsf' recovery rate of 19.8%. For Hipocat 11 the balance of defaulted receivables totalled EUR125.3 million and Fitch calculated a 'Bsf' recovery rate of 14.5%.

RATING SENSITIVITIES

For Hipocat 7 class A and B notes, the future depletion of the reserve fund may result in the note ratings being capped at 'A+sf'.

For all notes rated below 'A+sf', a timely and successful resolution of the existing defaulted receivables could have a positive rating impact, as indicated by the Positive Outlooks.

For all notes, a worsening of the Spanish macroeconomic environment, especially employment conditions, or an abrupt shift of interest rates could jeopardise the underlying borrowers' affordability. This could have negative effects on asset performance and negative rating implications.

DATA ADEQUACY

Fitch has checked the consistency and plausibility of the information it has received about the performance of the asset pools and the transactions. There were no findings that affected the rating analysis. Fitch has not reviewed the results of any third party assessment of the asset portfolio information or conducted a review of origination files as part of its ongoing monitoring.

Fitch did not undertake a review of the information provided about the underlying asset pools ahead of the transactions' initial closing. The subsequent performance of the transactions over the years is consistent with the agency's expectations given the operating environment and Fitch is therefore satisfied that the asset pool information relied upon for its initial rating analysis was adequately reliable.

Overall and together with the assumptions referred to above, Fitch's assessment of the information relied upon for the agency's rating analysis according to its applicable rating methodologies indicates that it is adequately reliable.

SOURCES OF INFORMATION

The information below was used in the analysis.

Fitch conducts a reasonable investigation of the factual information relied upon by it in accordance with its ratings methodology, and obtains reasonable verification of that information from independent sources, to the extent such sources are available for a given security or in a given jurisdiction. The manner of Fitch's factual investigation and the scope of the third-party verification it obtains will vary depending on the nature of the rated security and its issuer, the requirements and practices in the jurisdiction in which the rated security is offered and sold and/or the issuer is located, the availability and nature of relevant public information, access to the management of the issuer and its advisers, the availability of pre-existing third-party verifications such as audit reports, agreed-upon procedures letters, appraisals, actuarial reports, engineering reports, legal opinions and other reports provided by third parties, the availability of independent and competent third-party verification sources with respect to the particular security or in the particular jurisdiction of the issuer, and a variety of other factors. Users of Fitch's ratings and reports should understand that neither an enhanced factual investigation nor any third-party verification can ensure that all of the information Fitch relies on in connection with a rating or a report will be accurate and complete. Ultimately, the issuer and its advisers are responsible for the accuracy of the information they provide to Fitch and to the market in offering documents and other reports. In issuing its ratings and its reports, Fitch must rely on the work of experts, including independent auditors with respect to financial statements and attorneys with respect to legal and tax matters. Further, ratings and forecasts of financial and other information are inherently forward-looking and embody assumptions and predictions about future events that by their nature cannot be verified as facts. As a result, despite any verification of current facts, ratings and forecasts can be affected by future events or conditions that were not anticipated at the time a rating or forecast was issued or affirmed.
