FITCH AFFIRMS VALENCIA HIPOTECARIO SERIES

Fitch Ratings-London/Madrid-02 June 2011: Fitch Ratings has affirmed all four Valencia Hipotecario transactions, which contain residential mortgage loans originated and serviced in Spain by Banco de Valencia ('BBB-/Negative/'F3'). A full list of rating actions is at the end of this release.

In February 2011, Fitch downgraded three tranches of the Valencia Hipotecario transactions after considering its overall credit performance concerns (see "Fitch Downgrades Three Valencia Hipotecario Tranches; Affirms Others" dated 15 February 2011 on www.fitchratings.com). The agency also noted certain outstanding counterparty issues with regards to Banco de Valencia as swap provider. Since then, remedial actions have been put in place and the transactions' performance has remained in line with Fitch's expectations.

The originator, Banco de Valencia, acts as servicer of the collateral and swap provider. In February 2011, Banco de Valencia became ineligible as swap provider according to Fitch's counterparty criteria following the downgrade of its Long-term Issuer Default Ratings (IDR) to 'BBB-/RWN and Short-term rating to 'F3'.

Fitch considers that counterparty risk for the collateral servicing activities is mitigated by the daily transfer of collateral collections from the collection account to the special purpose vehicle (SPV) account bank, which is held with an eligible counterparty Banco Popular ('A/'F1'), and the dedicated commingling cash deposit in the transactions. These deposits are dynamically calculated and sized in amounts equivalent to 1.5 months of principal and interest collections at 10% annualised prepayments.

For the swaps, the arranger implemented remedial actions, including the appointment of Bancaja ('A-/Stable/'F2') as swap guarantor for all transactions. The guarantee covers any payment obligation derived from these swap agreements if Banco de Valencia fails to comply with contractual terms. The guarantee does not cover the potential operational risk arising if Banco de Valencia were to default (i.e. Bancaja would not replace Banco de Valencia as swap provider in any event). However, Bancaja went through a merger process with other Spanish financial institutions forming Banco Financiero y de Ahorros Group (BFA Group; 'A-/Stable/'F2') in April 2011, and is currently a non-eligible guarantor for structured finance notes rated above 'A+'. Additionally, these swaps are posting collateral on a weekly basis in favour of the SPVs, although this action is implemented by Banco de Valencia, which is ineligible under Fitch's counterparty criteria.

Fitch has consequently analysed the transactions in the absence of the support that would be provided by the swap agreements, and concluded that the impact of the basis risk in the transactions is immaterial to the overall rating stability of the notes. Consequently, Fitch is affirming all existing Valencia Hipotecario ratings, as follows:

Valencia Hipotecario 1, Fondo de Titulizacion de Activos:

Class A (ISIN ES0382744003): affirmed at 'AAAsf'; Outlook Stable; assigned a Loss Severity (LS) Rating 'LS-1'
