Fitch Upgrades BBVA Leasing 1, FTA's Class B Notes; Affirms Class C

Fitch Ratings-Madrid-29 December 2016: Fitch Ratings has upgraded BBVA Leasing 1, FTA's class B notes and affirmed class C notes as follows:

EUR65.5m Class B notes upgraded to 'Bsf' from 'CCsf'; Outlook Stable
EUR61.3m Class C notes affirmed at 'Csf'; Recovery Estimate 0%

BBVA Leasing 1 FTA is a securitisation of a pool of leasing contracts originated by Banco Bilbao Vizcaya Argentaria S.A. (BBVA; A-/Stable/F2) extended to non-financial small- and medium-enterprises domiciled in Spain. BBVA (A-/Stable/F2) is also servicer, account bank and swap provider for the transaction.

KEY RATING DRIVERS

Stable Performance

Transaction delinquency levels have remained low as leases more than 90 days past due represented 2.4% of the outstanding balance as of end-October 2016. Although this amount was 0.6% as of end-October 2015, 34% of the outstanding amount of non-defaulted assets have amortised since then. Cumulative defaults have remained stable at 7% of the initial portfolio.

Reduced Outstanding Balance

Non-defaulted assets amounted to EUR76.9m as of the last payment date in November 2016 and represent 3.1% of the initial portfolio. This results in higher portfolio concentration than in a typical granular deal. Fitch incorporated the risk of higher defaults at the end of the transaction life and irregular recoveries by increasing the default multiple to 6x and increasing the recovery stress to 60% in a AAAsf scenario. Furthermore, Fitch assumed a remaining life default base case of 15% to account for a potential scenario of back-loaded defaults as the deal is close to the end of its life.

Credit Enhancement Increase

The upgrade of the class B notes reflects increased credit enhancement (CE) due to asset amortisation, increased recoveries and the low defaults over the last year. As of end-November 2016, the class B notes' CE, provided entirely by overcollateralisation, was 14.8% compared with negative CE a year ago as the class B notes were not supported by sufficient performing collateral balance.

Class C Under-collateralised

The affirmation of class C notes at 'Csf' reflects an outstanding principal deficiency ledger (PDL) of EUR49.9m. With limited excess spread, coupled with slow incoming recoveries, it is highly unlikely that the PDL would be reduced to zero. Therefore, the default of the class C notes is deemed inevitable. Furthermore, the payment in full of the class C notes is subject to repayment of its interest, which is currently being deferred and its cumulative amount stands at EUR3.2m.

RATING SENSITIVITIES

The rating of the class B notes would be downgraded if the default base case increases by 10% or the recovery base case decreases by 30%. The rating on the class C notes would not be affected by stressed base case assumptions as it already is at a distressed level

DATA ADEQUACY

Fitch has checked the consistency and plausibility of the information it has received about the performance of the asset pool and the transaction. There were no findings that affected the rating analysis. Fitch has not reviewed the results of any third party assessment of the asset portfolio information or conducted a review of origination files as part of its ongoing monitoring.

Fitch did not undertake a review of the information provided about the underlying asset pool ahead of the transaction's initial closing. The subsequent performance of the transaction over the years is consistent with the agency's expectations given the operating environment and Fitch is therefore satisfied that the asset pool information relied upon for its initial rating analysis was adequately reliable.

Overall and together with the assumptions referred to above, Fitch's assessment of the information relied upon for the agency's rating analysis according to its applicable rating methodologies indicates that it is adequately reliable.

In issuing and maintaining its ratings and in making other reports (including forecast information), Fitch relies on factual information it receives from issuers and underwriters and from other sources Fitch believes to be credible. Fitch conducts a reasonable investigation of the factual information relied upon by it in accordance with its ratings methodology, and obtains reasonable verification of that information from independent sources, to the extent such sources are available for a given security or in a given jurisdiction. The manner of Fitch's factual investigation and the scope of the third-party verification it obtains will vary depending on the nature of the rated security and its issuer, the requirements and practices in the jurisdiction in which the rated security is offered and sold and/or the issuer is located, the availability and nature of relevant public information, access to the management of the issuer and its advisers, the availability of pre-existing third-party verifications such as audit reports, agreed-upon procedures letters, appraisals, actuarial reports, engineering reports, legal opinions and other reports provided by third parties, the availability of independent and competent third-party verification sources with respect to the particular security or in the particular jurisdiction of the issuer, and a variety of other factors. Users of Fitch's ratings and reports should understand that neither an enhanced factual investigation nor any third-party verification can ensure that all of the information Fitch relies on in connection with a rating or a report will be accurate and complete. Ultimately, the issuer and its advisers are responsible for the accuracy of the information they provide to Fitch and to the market in offering documents and other reports. In issuing its ratings and its reports, Fitch must rely on the work of experts, including independent auditors with respect to financial statements and attorneys with respect to legal and tax matters. Further, ratings and forecasts of financial and other information are inherently forward-looking and embody assumptions and predictions about future events that by their nature cannot be verified as facts. As a result, despite any verification of current facts, ratings and forecasts can be affected by future events or conditions that were not anticipated at the time a rating or forecast was issued or affirmed.

A Fitch rating is an opinion as to the creditworthiness of a security. This opinion and reports made by Fitch are based on established criteria and methodologies that Fitch is continuously evaluating and updating. Therefore, ratings and reports are the collective work product of Fitch and no individual, or group of individuals, is solely responsible for a rating or a report. The rating does not address the risk of loss due to risks other than credit risk, unless such risk is specifically mentioned. Fitch is not engaged in the offer or sale of any security. All Fitch reports have shared authorship. Individuals identified in a Fitch report were involved in, but are not solely responsible for, the opinions stated therein. The individuals are named for contact purposes only. A report providing a Fitch rating is neither a prospectus nor a substitute for the information assembled, verified and presented to investors by the issuer and its agents in connection with the sale of the securities. Ratings are not a recommendation to buy, sell, or hold any security. Ratings do not comment on the adequacy of market price, the suitability of any security for a particular investor, or the tax-exempt nature or taxability of payments made in respect to any security. Fitch receives fees from issuers, insurers, guarantors, other obligors, and underwriters for rating securities. Such fees generally vary from US$1,000 to US$750,000 (or the applicable currency equivalent) per issue. In certain cases, Fitch will rate all or a number of issues issued by a particular issuer, or insured or guaranteed by a particular insurer or guarantor, for a single annual fee. Such fees are expected to vary from US$10,000 to US$1,500,000 (or the applicable currency equivalent).
