TRANSACTION SUMMARY

The transactions comprise fully amortising Spanish residential mortgages serviced by Caixabank, S.A. (BBB+/Stable/F2).

KEY RATING DRIVERS

Stable Asset Performance Outlook: The rating actions reflect our broadly stable asset performance expectations for the transactions, in line with the stable outlook for the Spanish housing sector for the next few years (see "Global Housing and Mortgage Outlook 2024", as of December 2023). The transactions continue to see a low share of loans in arrears over 90 days (ranging between 0.7% and 1.3% as of the latest reporting dates), are protected by substantial seasoning of over 16 years, and carry low current loan-to-value (CLTV) ratios of between 30% and 53%.

Tail Risk Present: Bancaja 8 and Bancaja 9 are exposed to tail risk events given their low portfolio balances at only around 9% and 13% of the initial portfolio balances as of November and December 2023, respectively.

Sufficient Credit Enhancement: Fitch deems the notes sufficiently protected by credit enhancement (CE) against projected losses at their current ratings. While we expect CE to continue building up for Bancaja 8 and 13 with their notes' ongoing sequential amortisation, CE ratios will fall in the near term for Bancaja 9. This is because the reserve fund in the latter has recently hit its target and may soon be permitted to amortise to its absolute floor.

Moreover, Bancaja 9 may see temporary CE reductions in the near term for the most senior classes due to the reverse sequential amortisation of the notes so long as the portfolio performance triggers are satisfied in accordance with the pro-rata amortisation formula.

Portfolio Risky Attributes: The portfolios are exposed to geographical concentration risk mainly in the region of Valencia (between 43% and 54% of portfolio balance). In line with Fitch's European RMBS Rating Criteria, higher rating multiples are applied to the base foreclosure frequency (FF) assumption to the portion of the portfolios that exceeds 2.5x the population share of this region relative to the national count. Additionally, around 50% of each portfolio is linked to loans originated via brokers, which are higher-risk than branch-originated loans and are subject to an FF adjustment factor of 1.5x.

Criteria Variation Suspended (Bancaja 9): For Bancaja 9, Fitch has suspended the application of the criteria variation linked to a haircut to the ResiGlobal estimated recovery rates on future defaults, reflecting our view that recoveries will be supported by the very low CLTV of the portfolio of around 30%, the comparable record of Bancaja 9 versus peers' in cumulative recoveries, and our stable outlook for the Spanish housing sector for the next years.

Counterparty Risk Cap Ratings: Bancaja 13's class A notes' rating is at its maximum achievable level of 'A+sf' due to documented counterparty provisions. The minimum eligibility rating contractually defined for the transaction account bank (TAB) is 'BBB', which is insufficient to support 'AAsf' category or 'AAAsf' ratings as per Fitch's Structured Finance and Covered Bonds Counterparty Rating Criteria.

The Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) Relevance Score for Bancaja 13 is '5' in relation to transaction parties & operational risk, following a change in its TAB eligibility triggers during the life of the transaction with a material impact to the ratings. The initially defined eligibility triggers of 'A' of 'F1' as of closing date were modified to 'BBB+' or 'F2' in March 2012 and to 'BBB' in March 2021.

RATING SENSITIVITIES

Factors that Could, Individually or Collectively, Lead to Negative Rating Action/Downgrade

For notes rated 'AAAsf', a downgrade of Spain's Long-Term Issuer Default Rating (IDR) could decrease the maximum achievable rating for Spanish structured finance transactions. This is because the notes are capped at the maximum achievable rating in Spain, six notches above the sovereign IDR.

Long-term asset performance deterioration such as increased delinquencies or larger defaults, which could be driven by changes to macroeconomic conditions, interest rate increases or borrower behaviour. For instance, a 15% increase in defaults and a 15% decrease in recoveries combined would lead to a downgrade of four notches and no more than one notch to the class D notes of Bancaja 8 and 9, respectively.

Factors that Could, Individually or Collectively, Lead to Positive Rating Action/Upgrade

For ratings below 'AAAsf', upgrades may result from increased CE as the transactions deleverage to fully compensate for the credit losses and cash flow stresses that are commensurate with higher ratings.

For Bancaja 13 class A notes, modified TAB's minimum eligibility ratings that are compatible with 'AAsf' and 'AAAsf' ratings may result in upgrades.

USE OF THIRD PARTY DUE DILIGENCE PURSUANT TO SEC RULE 17G -10

Form ABS Due Diligence-15E was not provided to, or reviewed by, Fitch in relation to this rating action.

DATA ADEQUACY

Fitch has checked the consistency and plausibility of the information it has received about the performance of the asset pools and the transactions. Fitch has not reviewed the results of any third-party assessment of the asset portfolio information or conducted a review of origination files as part of its ongoing monitoring.

Fitch did not undertake a review of the information provided about the underlying asset pools ahead of the transactions' initial closing. The subsequent performance of the transactions over the years is consistent with the agency's expectations given the operating environment and Fitch is therefore satisfied that the asset pool information relied upon for its initial rating analysis was adequately reliable.

Overall, and together with any assumptions referred to above, Fitch's assessment of the information relied upon for the agency's rating analysis according to its applicable rating methodologies indicates that it is adequately reliable.

REFERENCES FOR SUBSTANTIALLY MATERIAL SOURCE CITED AS KEY DRIVER OF RATING

The principal sources of information used in the analysis are described in the Applicable Criteria.

ESG CONSIDERATIONS

The ESG Relevance Score for Bancaja 13 is '5' in relation to transaction parties & operational risk. The TAB eligibility triggers have been changed during the life of the transaction with a material impact to the ratings; the initially defined eligibility triggers of 'A' of 'F1' as of closing date were modified to 'BBB+' or 'F2' in March 2012 and to 'BBB' in March

Unless otherwise disclosed in this section, the highest level of ESG credit relevance is a score of '3'. This means ESG issues are credit-neutral or have only a minimal credit impact on the entity, either due to their nature or the way in which they are being managed by the entity. Fitch's ESG Relevance Scores are not inputs in the rating process; they are an observation of the materiality and relevance of ESG factors in the rating decision. In issuing and maintaining its ratings and in making other reports (including forecast information), Fitch relies on factual information it receives from issuers and underwriters and from other sources Fitch believes to be credible. Fitch conducts a reasonable investigation of the factual information relied upon by it in accordance with its ratings methodology, and obtains reasonable verification of that information from independent sources, to the extent such sources are available for a given security or in a given jurisdiction. The manner of Fitch's factual investigation and the scope of the third-party verification it obtains will vary depending on the nature of the rated security and its issuer, the requirements and practices in the jurisdiction in which the rated security is offered and sold and/or the issuer is located, the availability and nature of relevant public information, access to the management of the issuer and its advisers, the availability of pre-existing third-party verifications such as audit reports, agreed-upon procedures letters, appraisals, actuarial reports, engineering reports, legal opinions and other reports provided by third parties, the availability of independent and competent third-party verification sources with respect to the particular security or in the particular jurisdiction of the issuer, and a variety of other factors. Users of Fitch's ratings and reports should understand that neither an enhanced factual investigation nor any third-party verification can ensure that all of the information Fitch relies on in connection with a rating or a report will be accurate and complete. Ultimately, the issuer and its advisers are responsible for the accuracy of the information they provide to Fitch and to the market in offering documents and other reports. In issuing its ratings and its reports, Fitch must rely on the work of experts, including independent auditors with respect to financial statements and attorneys with respect to legal and tax matters. Further, ratings and forecasts of financial and other information are inherently forward-looking and embody assumptions and predictions about future events that by their nature cannot be verified as facts. As a result, despite any verification of current facts, ratings and forecasts can be affected by future events or conditions that were not anticipated at the time a rating or forecast was issued or affirmed. Fitch Ratings makes routine, commonly-accepted adjustments to reported financial data in accordance with the relevant criteria and/or industry standards to provide financial metric consistency for entities in the same sector or asset class.

The complete span of best- and worst-case scenario credit ratings for all rating categories ranges from 'AAA' to 'D'. Fitch also provides information on best-case rating upgrade scenarios and worst-case rating downgrade scenarios (defined as the 99th percentile of rating transitions, measured in each direction) for international credit ratings, based on historical performance. A simple average across asset classes presents best-case upgrades of 4 notches and worst-case downgrades of 8 notches at the 99th percentile. Ratings do not comment on the adequacy of market price, the suitability of any security for a particular investor, or the tax-exempt nature or taxability of payments made in respect to any security. Fitch receives fees from issuers, insurers, guarantors, other obligors, and underwriters for rating securities. Such fees generally vary from US$1,000 to US$750,000 (or the applicable currency equivalent) per issue. In certain cases, Fitch will rate all or a number of issues issued by a particular issuer, or insured or guaranteed by a particular insurer or guarantor, for a single annual fee. Such fees are expected to vary from US$10,000 to US$1,500,000 (or the applicable currency equivalent).
