RATINGS RATIONALE

Moody's analysed the impact of CaixaBank, S.A. (A3/P-2; A3(cr)/P-2(cr)) assuming roles previously held by Bankia, S.A. in the affected transactions. According to our methodology, the rating constraints due to exposure to CaixaBank, S.A. are higher than they were when the Notes were exposed to Bankia, S.A. before the merger.

Moody's confirmed the ratings of the classes of Notes that had sufficient credit enhancements to maintain their current ratings.

Key Collateral Assumption Revised

As part of the rating actions, Moody's reassessed its lifetime loss expectations and recovery rates for the portfolios reflecting their collateral performances to date.

Moody's revised its expected loss assumptions as follows:

(i) BANCAJA 13, FTA, set at 7.78% from 8.10%.

(ii) MBS BANCAJA 6, FTA, set at 5.26% from 5.59%.

(iii) Madrid Residencial I, FTA, set at 5.63% from 6.15%.

(iv) Madrid Residencial II, FTA, set at 5.58% from 6.20%.

(v) MADRID RMBS IV, FTA, set at 11.12% from 11.60%.

All as a percentage of the original pool balance for each transaction.

Moody's has also assessed loan-by-loan information as a part of its detailed transaction review to determine the credit support consistent with target ratings levels and the volatility of future losses. As a result, Moody's has revised the MILAN CE assumptions of each transaction as follows:

(i) BANCAJA 13, FTA, set at 15.0% from 16.0%.

(ii) MBS BANCAJA 6, FTA, set at 12.90%, unchanged.

(iii) Madrid Residencial I, FTA, set at 14.0%, unchanged.

(iv) Madrid Residencial II, FTA, set at 14.0%, unchanged.

(v) MADRID RMBS IV, FTA, set at 16.0% from 20.0%.

The coronavirus pandemic has had a significant impact on economic activity. Although global economies have shown a remarkable degree of resilience to date and are returning to growth, the uneven effects on individual businesses, sectors and regions will continue throughout 2021 and will endure as a challenge to the world's economies well beyond the end of the year. While persistent virus fears remain the main risk for a recovery in demand, the economy will recover faster if vaccines and further fiscal and monetary policy responses bring forward a normalization of activity. As a result, there is a heightened degree of uncertainty around our forecasts. Our analysis has considered the effect on the performance of consumer assets from a gradual and unbalanced recovery in Spain economic activity.

We regard the coronavirus outbreak as a social risk under our ESG framework, given the substantial implications for public health and safety.

PRINCIPAL METHODOLOGY

The principal methodology used in these ratings was "Moody's Approach to Rating RMBS Using the MILAN Framework" published in December 2020 and available at https://www.moodys.com/researchdocumentcontentpage.aspx?docid=PBS_1248130 . Alternatively, please see the Rating Methodologies page on www.moodys.com for a copy of this methodology.

The analysis undertaken by Moody's at the initial assignment of ratings for RMBS securities may focus on aspects that become less relevant or typically remain unchanged during the surveillance stage. Please see "Moody's Approach to Rating RMBS Using the MILAN Framework" for further information on Moody's analysis at the initial rating assignment and the on-going surveillance in RMBS.

Factors that would lead to an upgrade or downgrade of the ratings:

Factors or circumstances that could lead to an upgrade of the ratings include: (i) performance of the underlying collateral that is better than Moody's expected; (ii) an increase in the Notes' available credit enhancement; (iii) improvements in the credit quality of the transaction counterparties; and (iv) a decrease in sovereign risk.

Factors or circumstances that could lead to a downgrade of the ratings include: (i) an increase in sovereign risk; (ii) performance of the underlying collateral that is worse than Moody's expected; (iii) deterioration in the Notes' available credit enhancement; and (iv) deterioration in the credit quality of the transaction counterparties.

REGULATORY DISCLOSURES

For further specification of Moody's key rating assumptions and sensitivity analysis, see the sections Methodology Assumptions and Sensitivity to Assumptions in the disclosure form. Moody's Rating Symbols and Definitions can be found at: https://www.moodys.com/researchdocumentcontentpage.aspx?docid=PBC_79004.

The analysis relies on an assessment of collateral characteristics to determine the collateral loss distribution, that is, the function that correlates to an assumption about the likelihood of occurrence to each level of possible losses in the collateral. As a second step, Moody's evaluates each possible collateral loss scenario using a model that replicates the relevant structural features to derive payments and therefore the ultimate potential losses for each rated instrument. The loss a rated instrument incurs in each collateral loss scenario, weighted by assumptions about the likelihood of events in that scenario occurring, results in the expected loss of the rated instrument.

Moody's quantitative analysis entails an evaluation of scenarios that stress factors contributing to sensitivity of ratings and take into account the likelihood of severe collateral losses or impaired cash flows. Moody's weights the impact on the rated instruments based on its assumptions of the likelihood of the events in such scenarios occurring.
